In the event of any violation of any of the provisions of this Declaration, the Declarant or any other person or persons owning real property within the plat may, at their option, exercise the right to enforce these covenants by prosecuting any proceeding at law or in equity necessary to prevent the violation or to recover damages sustained by reason of such violation. Failure by any party to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter. In any action successfully prosecuted to abate or recover damages for a violation of the provisions of this Declaration, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred in such enforcement.

8.02 Severability. Invalidation of any one of these covenants or restrictions by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

8.03 Duration. 8.04 Term and Amendment. These covenants and restrictions shall run with and bind all the property within this subdivision for a term of twenty (20) years from the date this Declaration is recorded, after which time they shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years. This Declaration or parts hereof can be terminated, revoked, or amended only by duly recording an instrument which contains the amendment or the order of revocation or termination and which is signed by the owners of seventy-five (75) percent of the platted lots except that the Declarant shall retain the authority to make amendments until it has closed no less than seventy-five (75) percent of the lots. After seventy-five (75) percent of lots have been sold any of the covenants and restrictions of this Declaration, except the easements herein granted, may be amended by an instrument signed by Members entitled to cast not less than seventy-five (75) percent of the votes of each class of membership. 8.06 Right of Mortgagees Relating to Maintenance. The record holder of any mortgage or deed of trust on any lot, who becomes the record owner of such lot through foreclosure, judicial sale, deed-in-lieu-of-foreclosure, or any other legal means, shall be considered an Owner for purposes of these covenants and shall have all rights and obligations of other Owners thereunder.
